POSITION REGARDING THE TAKING OF JUDGING SAMPLES
FROM THE JUDGING AREA

Whereas, individuals voluntarily commit their time, travel costs, and their fee costs to become a Certified KCBS Judge, and

Whereas, these Certified KCBS Judges are adjudicated as intelligent persons of good integrity regarding safe food handling, and

Whereas, these Certified KCBS Judges have voluntarily and unconditionally stepped forward to be of service to the WildBlue Barbeque event , and

Whereas, these Certified KCBS Judges expend their time, gas money and expertise in judging for the WildBlue Barbeque event, then

The WildBlue Barbeque event shall allow all judges and volunteer staff to remove samples from the judging area. The recipients acknowledge the need for diligence and care in handling the samples once they have left the judging area to avoid contamination or spoilage of those samples taken. Such acknowledgement is affirmed by the KCBS Certified Judge by signing of the WildBlue Waiver of Liability regarding the taking of samples that follows:

"I accept and agree that I will be solely liable for food samples taken from the judging and contest area and subsequently consumed. I release the WildBlue Barbeque, its sponsors and agents, and the participants in the 2008 WildBlue Barbeque sanctioned contest and will hold them harmless from any liability to me or any other person to whom I provide these samples that I have taken."
